

ST JOHNS
BUILDINGS
BARRISTERS CHAMBERS

Charles Eastwood
Year of call: 1988

NATURE OF PRACTICE:

Charles practises in all areas of family law

PARTICULAR SPECIALIST INTEREST:

Ancillary Relief: Charles has experiences in all areas, including cases where the assets are substantial, involve business valuations and liquidity and pensions

Public and Private Law: Charles has represented Local Authorities, Parents and Guardians in both public and private law, Cohabitation and Inheritance Act Claims

International Family Law

Charles is ranked by Chambers and Partners and The Legal 500 as a leading junior in children and money work. He regularly talks to Resolution and other professional bodies on ancillary relief and related topics.

WHAT THE DIRECTORIES SAY:

2006 "Recommended for big money cases" - Legal 500

2006 "Charles has a solid track record for money and children work. Solicitors observe that he is particularly "good with cases involving a lot of details." - Chambers & Partners

2007 "Meticulous and well prepared". "He has a good manner with clients" - Chambers & Partners

2007 "A great all rounder on both children and ancillary relief work" - Legal 500

2008 "he is just so good on money and divorce, especially when there are company assets involved" Chambers & Partners

ST JOHNS
BUILDINGS
BARRISTERS CHAMBERS

2009 "has developed an enviable reputation for his ancillary relief practice and all categories of cases involving children. "A terrier like and very thorough individual," he is admired for his "focused and determined advocacy." Chambers & Partners

ASSOCIATIONS:

Family Law Bar Association

Contact: Ben McKay (ben.mckay@stjohnsbuildings.co.uk)

Tel: 0161 214 1500

www.stjohnsbuildings.co.uk